

NOTEBOOK AND PEN SPONSORED BY

In partnership with

www.afcea-qp.org

6TH ANNUAL
AFCEA QUANTICO-POTOMAC

USMC IT DAY

TUESDAY, APRIL 28TH 2015

EXPEDITIONARY
DATA MOBILITY

PREMIERE SPONSORS

PLATINUM SPONSORS

Booz | Allen | Hamilton

GOLD SPONSORS

World Wide Technology, Inc.

SILVER SPONSORS

Tintri

augustschell
Red Hat Federal Team

PANELISTS

Colonel Peter J. Dillon, USMC

Chief Strategic Planning Division, HQMC C4

Col Dillon's duties include: Officer in Charge, Marine Communications Detachment, USS Tarawa; Operations Officer, S6, 1st Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion; Operations Officer, Communications Company, Headquarters Battalion and S6, 5th Marine Regiment; Graduate Command and Control Systems Course in Quantico; Assistant Operations Officer, Central Command Desk, MARFORPAC; G6 Operations Officer, MARCENT in support of Operation Enduring Freedom (Bahrain); Officer in Charge, Marine Communications Detachment, Amphibious Group Three; Task Force 51 (Amphibious) communications liaison officer to 5th Fleet (Bahrain0; J6 of U.S. Forces in Tokyo, Japan; J62, Operations, Exercises and Plans; Assistant Chief of Staff, G6, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing; commanding officer of Region 1, Marine Corps Embassy Security Group. He was selected for top-level school commencing in 2012 and subsequently served as the Commandant of the Marine Corps' fellow to the Atlantic Council for 2012-2013.

Colonel Douglas A. Hawkins

Assistant Chief of Staff, G6, Marine Forces Reserve

Col Hawkins' duties have included: Communication Planner, Future Plans and Policy Directorate, J-5, Combined Joint Task Force 190; Officer-in-Charge, Marine Tactical Amphibious Command and Control Systems and Assistant Communication Officer of the USS Boxer; Executive Officer, Communication Company, Headquarters Battalion, 1st Marine Division, Camp Pendleton; Regimental Communication Officer, 11th Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division; Operations Officer, Assistant Chief of Staff, G-6, 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing, Miramar; J-6 Directorate, Headquarters, United States Central Command, Tampa; J-6 Liaison Officer to Multi National Forces – Iraq; Executive Assistant to the Director, USCENTCOM J-6, and Officer-In-Charge, USCENTCOM Commander's Communication Support Team; Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff, G-6, I Marine Expeditionary Force (Forward) and deployed to Al Anbar Province, Iraq as a member of the Command Element Staff, Multi National Forces West – Iraq; commanding officer of Headquarters Battalion, Marine Forces Reserve, New Orleans; Assistant Chief of Staff, G-6, 1st Marine Logistics Group, Camp Pendleton. He assumed his present duties as Assistant Chief of Staff, G6, Marine Forces Reserve in June 2012.

Colonel Douglas E. Mason, USMC

AC/S G-6, II Marine Expeditionary Force

Col Mason's duties have included: communications officer for 3rd Battalion 4th Marines, and later, 1st Battalion, 8th Marines, G-6, 4th Marine Division; S-6, 7th Marine Regiment; G-6 Operations Officer, III MEF; and AC/S G-6, 2d Marine Logistics Group, Provincial Police Transition Team Leader in al Anbar Province, commanding officer 8th Communication Battalion, J-63 at USPACOM, and director of the PACOM Joint Cyber Center. On returning to Camp Lejeune to serve as the II MEF AC/S G-6, Col Mason deployed to Helmand Province as the OIC of the Afghan National Police Advisor Team. Col Mason holds a Master's Degree in Operations Research from the Naval Postgraduate School, a Master's Degree in National Security Studies from the Naval War College, and a Master's Degree in Joint Campaign Planning from the Joint Advanced Warfighting School.

Colonel Roger D. Stanfield

AC/S G6, I MEF, Camp Pendleton, CA

Col Standfield's officer duties included: Assistant ISMO and Data Comm, I MEF G6, Camp Pendleton, Plt. Commander, 9th Communications Battalion, student at NPS where he received a MSEE in Computer Engineering, 11th Marine Regiment Communications Officer, Commanding Officer, 1st Marine Division (MarDiv) Communications Company, Chief, Theater NetOps Center and Director of Operations DISA Europe, Stuttgart Germany, Deputy AC/S G6, III MEF; Commanding Marine Wing Communications Squadron-18; Executive Officer, HQ Bn, 3rd Marine Division; XO, Marine Corps Communications Electronics School; I MEF Forward AC/S G6 in August 2011; Regional Command (Southwest) C6. He was promoted to Col in November 2012, Col Standfield is currently the AC/S G6, I MEF, Camp Pendleton, CA.

KEYNOTE

Lieutenant General Jon M. Davis Deputy Commandant for Aviation

Lieutenant General Jon M. Davis assumed his current position as the Deputy Commandant for Aviation, Headquarters Marine Corps in July 2014.

Commissioned in May 1980 through the PLC Program, LtGen Davis completed the Basic School in August 1980, and then reported for flight training. Upon receiving his wings in September of 1982, he was selected to fly the AV-8A Harrier.

He reported to VMAT-203 in October 1982, completed Harrier training and reported to VMA-231 in 1983 where he deployed aboard the USS Inchon. In 1985 he transferred to VMAT-203 serving as an instructor pilot. In 1986 he attended the WTI course at MAWTS-1. In 1987 he transferred to VMA-223 serving as the "Bulldogs" WTI and operations officer. From 1988 to 1991 he served as an exchange officer with the Royal Air Force. After training in the United Kingdom, he deployed to Gutersloh, Germany for duty as a GR-5/7 attack pilot with 3(F) squadron. From 1991 to 1994 he served as an instructor at MAWTS-1 in Yuma, AZ. From 1998 to 2000 he commanded VMA-223. During his tour, VMA-223 won the CNO Safety Award and the Sanderson Trophy two years in a row, and exceeded 40,000 hours of mishap free operations. After completing the Executive Helicopter Familiarization Course at HT-18 in Pensacola in 2003, he was assigned to MAWTS-1 where he served as Executive Officer and from 2004 to 2006 as Commanding Officer. From 2006 to 2008 he served as the Deputy Commander Joint Functional Component Command -- Network Warfare at Fort Meade, Maryland. He commanded the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing from July 2010 to May 2012. From May 2012 to June 2014, he served as the Deputy Commander, United States Cyber Command.

His staff billets include a two year tour as a member of the 31st Commandant's Staff Group, and two years as the Junior Military Assistant to the Deputy Secretary of Defense. In 2003, he served as an Assistant Operations Officer on the 3rd Marine Air Wing staff in Kuwait during Operation Iraqi Freedom. In 2004, he served in Iraq as the Officer in Charge of the 3d Marine Aircraft Red Team. He served as the Deputy Assistant Commandant for Aviation from 2008 to 2010. In the course of his career he has flown over 4,500 mishap free hours in the AV-8, F-5 and FA-18 and as a co-pilot in every type model series tilt-rotor, rotary winged and air refueler aircraft in the USMC inventory.

LtGen Davis graduated with honors from The Basic School and was a Distinguished Graduate of the Marine Corps Command and Staff College. He is a graduate of the Tactical Air Control Party Course, Amphibious Warfare School, Marine Aviation Weapons and Tactics Instructor Course (WTI), The School of Advanced Warfighting (SAW), and Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS). He holds a Bachelors of Science from Allegheny College, a Masters of Science from Marine Corps University and a Masters of International Public Policy from Johns Hopkins.

His personal decorations include the National Intelligence Distinguished Service Medal, the Defense Superior Service Medal (two awards), the Legion of Merit (two awards), Meritorious Service Medal (three awards), Navy Commendation (three awards) as well as other campaign and service awards.

AGENDA

0930 – 1030 Registration

1030 – 1035 Invocation

1035 – 1045 Opening Events and Comments

1045 – 1100 AFCEA President, Bob Shea, LtGen (USMC Ret)

1100 – 1115 BGen Kevin Nally, Director C4/USMC CIO

1115 – 1130 Short Break & Set-up Lunch

1130 – 1230 Lunch with Keynote Speaker:
LtGen Jon M. "Dog" Davis, Deputy Commandant
of the Marine Corps, Aviation

1230 – 1300 Break

1300 – 1430 Discussion Panel
Moderator: John Thomas, BGen (USMC Ret)

1430 – 1445 Break

1445 – 1500 Wounded Warrior Cyber Combat Academy, Jim Wiggins

1500 – 1515 Scholarship presentations for W2CCA

1515 – 1630 Col Brock McDaniel, Director, MC3, MCSC

1630 – 1930 Industry Mixer

SPEAKERS

Brigadier General Kevin J. Nally,
Chief Information Officer, United States Marine Corps

BGen Nally currently serves as the Director, C4/CIO of the Marine Corps and Deputy Director for MARFORCYBER. He served in Operation Desert Shield and Desert Storm during his assignment with the 2nd Marine Division. He served as Deputy Director, J6, U.S. Forces, Japan; and later served as C.O. Marine Communication-Electronics School, 29 Palms, CA. He also served as Dep. Director for C4, U.S. CENTCOM, where he deployed in support of Operations Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom. At Camp LeJeune, NC, he served as the II MEF Chief of Staff. He graduated from Eastern Kentucky University with a B.S. in Agronomy and Natural Resources as well as the Industrial College of the Armed Forces with a concentration in Information Strategy. He was a 2012 winner of a Federal 100 Award. His personal decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit (with one gold star), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with two gold stars, the Navy/Marine Corps Commendation Medal with three gold stars, the Navy/Marine Corps Achievement Medal, and the Combat Action Ribbon.

Colonel Brock McDaniel,
Director, MC3, MCSC

Col McDaniel graduated from California State University, commissioned through the Platoon Leaders Class program. Col McDaniel was designated as a Naval Flight Officer and assigned to Whidbey Island for Fleet Replacement Training in the EA-6B Prowler, he reported to VMAQ-2 in Cherry Point. He served as the NATOPS Officer in Operations Joint Endeavor and Deliberate Guard, and was selected to serve as the squadron representative at the Combined Air Operations Center. Col McDaniel was assigned as a Mission Commander. He was the Aviation Safety Officer for Operation Allied Force (OAF) with VMAQ-2 and later as the Department Head billet as the Director of Safety and Standardization. Col McDaniel flew 30 OAF combat missions, 17 of which as a Mission Commander. He graduated with a Masters degree in Acquisition Management from Naval Post Graduate School (NPS). McDaniel's billets include, Infantry Weapons Systems, Marine Corps Systems Command in Quantico; Project Officer for the Mobility Denial System and M203 Grenade Launcher; Team Lead for the Force Protection/Non-Lethal Systems Team, Ground Based Air Defense; Team Lead; the Program Manager for Air Defense Weapons Acquisition Command Slate Board; and the MAGTF C4ISR Division Head at the Marine Corps Operation Test and Evaluation Activity. While at MCOTEA, he earned his Level III certification in Test and Evaluation. In 2013 Col McDaniel was selected to serve as the Program Manager, MC3 at MCSC. He assumed this billet in March 2014.

SPEAKERS

Lieutenant General (Ret.) Robert M. (Bob) Shea
President and Chief Executive Officer, AFCEA

LtGen. (Ret.) Shea's command positions included Deputy Commander, U.S. Forces Japan; Commander of the Marine Component, Joint Task Force Computer Network Defense; Director of the Marine Corps Command and Control Systems School; and Commanding Officer, 9th Communications Battalion, I Marine Expeditionary Force during Desert Shield and Desert Storm, as well, Commanding Officer of two communications companies. LtGen Shea's assignments include: Director for C4 for the Marine Corps; the Chief Information Officer of the Marine Corps; Director of Intelligence for the Marine Corps; the Director for Command, Control and Communications (J6) for the United States Pacific Command. Prior to leaving active duty, Shea served as the Director, Command, Control, Communications and Computer Systems (C4 Systems), The Joint Staff. He was the principal advisor to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff on all C4 systems matters within the DoD. Shea most recently served as the Executive Vice President, Strategic Solutions, for Smartronix, Inc. LtGen Shea is a Director on two corporate boards, an executive partner with a private equity corporation, and an advisor/consultant to several telecommunication and defense corporations. He also has served on study panels for the National Academies and the Defense Science Board.

Brigadier General John R. Thomas (USMC Ret) Moderator
Strategic Business Advisor, IBM Corporation

BGen Thomas serves as a strategic business advisor to the IBM Corp. and independent information services and technology consultant. Prior to his current role, he served as the US Marine Corps, Joint Commands, and Defense Agencies Account Executives in IBM Global Business Services. Other positions held in IBM included Delivery Executive for Application Innovation Services, and Program executive for DOD's Business Management Modernization Program. Before joining IBM, he served in the United States Marine Corps for 32 years. In his last active duty assignment, he served as the Marine Corps' Chief Information Officer (CIO) and Director for Command, Control, Communications, and Computers (C4). He was selected for Brigadier General in 1999. Thomas's key billets include, Commander, Marine Corps Component, Joint Task Force for Global Network Operations; Commanding Officer, 1st Surveillance, Reconnaissance, and Intelligence Group, I MEF; Commanding Officer, 7th Communications Battalion, III MEF; Commanding Officer, Communications Company, 3d FSSG; and Detachment Commander, Humanitarian Relief Operations in the Philippines supporting evacuations from South Vietnam.

Jim Wiggins
Wounded Warrior Cyber Combat Academy

Mr. Wiggins possesses more than 17 years of direct experience in the design, operation, management, and auditing of information technology systems, with the past 13 years focused on information systems security. Additionally, he is the Executive Director of the Federal IT Security Institute (FITSI). FITSI is a 501c6, non-profit organization that provides a role-based IT security certification program targeted at the Federal workforce. He also is the Executive Director of the FITSI Foundation, the 501c3 public charity that is running the Wounded Warrior Cyber Combat Academy (W2CCA). In 2011, the Federal Information Systems Security Educators' Association (FISSEA) named him "Educator of the Year" for the impact he is making in the Federal workforce.